Course Description

Forms and concepts in Canadian art from 1900 to the present; the Group of Seven, Nationalism, Regionalism and more recent developments in Canadian art.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

Art History 201 and 203 or consent of the Department.

Objectives of the Course

Students who successfully complete the course will:

1. Develop vocabulary, understanding of formal elements and ability to make close observations of art in order to process the visual analysis of art and read related texts more effectively.
2. Develop knowledge of Canadian art history from 1900 to the present.
3. Examine and identify the characteristics of examples of art from this period.
4. Understand the interpretation and significance of art and Canadian cultural institutions in light of pertinent social and economic factors as well as art historical perspectives within national and international contexts.
5. Practice skills that are necessary for the examination of art and the study of art history: observation, research, documentation, visual analysis, and ability to compare and contrast.

6. Develop and practice critical thinking in the assessment of the significance of art in this time frame.

Deferral of Exams/Term work

It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examination(s) for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with Enrolment Services if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. Contact the instructor 24 hours in advance of the due date to discuss requests for deferrals.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support> or <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered by the Students' Union in 251 MacEwan Student Centre. There are various shapes and sizes of lockers for rent. Please write down the barcode numbers (top left of each locker) for the locker shape that you require and bring this list with you to the SU office between 8:30a.m. and 4:30p.m., Monday-Friday. Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

For more information go to <http://www.su.ucalgary.ca/>

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

All unclaimed work will be disposed of two weeks after the end of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
