Course Description

A chronological examination of the art and architecture of dynastic Japan, with special emphasis on Shinto and Buddhist traditions.

Prerequisites

none

Objectives of the Course

This introduction to the periods and styles of Japanese art and architecture will include references to Japanese social, political and cultural history. Students will gain insight into the relationships between religious beliefs and the creation of images and ritual structures.

Textbooks and Readings

A History of Far Eastern Art, Fifth Edition, Sherman E. Lee

Readings will be assigned during class time.

Assignments and Evaluation

There will be one midterm exam (February 27) and one final exam (during the Registrar-scheduled final exam period, April 19-30), each worth 50% of the final grade.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment. Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam-Yes

No books, notes, or other aids will be permitted.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building. All unclaimed work will be disposed of two weeks after the end of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
