2. Develop an explicit awareness and understanding of the development and operation of the important institutions (social, religious, economic and political) and cultural, social and individual values.
3. Advance considerably the student's ability to deal creatively and intellectually with the complexity of ideas, institutions, etc.
4. Build a foundation for further art historical studies.
5. Prepare the student to provide well-developed judgements - in addition to factual analysis - to areas of problem solving.

Assignments and Evaluation

There are no tests/examination in this course.

Art History 411 requires a research paper of approximately 20/22 pages of text (approximately 3,000 words) plus bibliography, foot notes (endnotes) and illustrations, of high quality and content on a project assigned by the professor to the student or suggested by the student to the professor.

The student's grade will be based upon the research paper (80%) and presentation (20%).

Failure to present the paper at the assigned time will result in 20% of your grade recorded as F unless there is medical and/or acceptable excuse. The presentation will then be re-scheduled.

The research paper is due no later than 12:30 p.m., December 4, 2014.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of the submitted assignment. Please hand in your assignment directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Late Policy

Late papers will be lowered by one full grade for each day or part thereof after the deadline.

Additional Information

At the first meeting of the class students will be informed that each student will be responsible for a professional presentation of his/her research paper. Each student presentation will be approximately 50 minutes long plus time for questions.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
