Evaluation Breakdown:

Classroom Community and Professionalism:

Students are expected to attend all classes. A mark will be given for each student each class dependent upon their contribution to the class community and demonstrated level of professionalism. This grade will be affected by: being absent from class, arriving late to class, arriving unprepared for class activities (i.e., not bringing necessary supplies), failure to participate in class activities or by using personal technologies during designated technology-free times (see below).

Any absence for any reason (including illness) will negatively affect a student's mark for that day. In the event that a serious illness or extenuating circumstances prompts a student to miss a significant number of classes, the student is advised to contact their instructor immediately. Upon instructor consultation, the student may be advised to apply for a formal accommodation with approval from a physician or recognized health professional.

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection (Evaluation of Course Assignments):

All in-class assignments will be due at the end of every class unless indicated otherwise by your instructor. Homework assignments will be due on the due date indicated on the individual assignment outline for critique.

All assignments will be re-reviewed and evaluated by your instructor upon receiving your Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection. The Artwork Portfolio is a PDF document created by each individual student and will include digital photographs of all course work leading up to the Portfolio deadline and a short written self-reflection. You will submit a portfolio three times throughout the course. The assignment portfolio will be inclusive of all coursework (both in-class and homework) and will be evaluated holistically, in reference to course objectives and assignment criteria, utilizing the course rubric and University of Calgary grading scale.

It is very important that you document (with a smartphone or digital camera) every assignment you create for the course.

Each assignment within the portfolio will be given equal consideration in its capacity to inform a broad picture of your work and progress in the course. Criteria for each individual assignment highlighting objectives will accompany each assignment. Criteria for in-class assignments will be given verbally in class and criteria for homework assignments will be provided on D2L by the date the assignment is given.

Portfolio evaluation in the form of a letter grade and qualitative feedback will be provided to you approximately 1-2 weeks after each Portfolio is due. Upon receiving a grade and feedback on your complete portfolio, if you feel you would like to re-do, adjust or change a (already fully-completed) assignment(s) you may do so as long as you re-submit the assignment prior to the next portfolio due date. All re-done or adjusted assignments must be handed in December 6th, no exceptions.

* Without modifying the breadth or scope of the course in accordance with the above learning objectives, any changes made to the list (below) of required assignments for each portfolio will be given two weeks prior to the portfolio due date.

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection #1 will include:

1. Contemporary Artist Research Assignment (The Potential for Drawing Is...)
2. Contour Line Drawing (Still Life)
3. Overlapping and Pictorial Space (Tangle Drawing and the Imaginative Space)
4. Cross Hatching and Narrative (Decontextualizing Durer's Pillow)
5. Mark making Assignment (Giant Self Portrait with Ink Brush)
6. Landscape Assignment (A Precarious Relationship)

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection #2 will include:

1. Pictorial Space Assignment
2. Perspective Workshop Assignment
3. Empirical Perspective Drawing (Perspective through Narrative and the Camera's Eye)
4. Tonal Drawing from Folded Paper
5. Abstract Collage Drawing
6. Gesture Drawing (Figure)
7. Tonal Drawing (Figure)

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection #3 will include:

1. Prescription Assignment - Evidence of Process #1 (Research)
2. Prescription Assignment – Evidence of Process #2 (Sketches)
3. Prescription Assignment - Performance Plan (Written/Sketches)
4. Prescription Assignment – Written Paragraph about Artistic Intent and Process
5. Prescription Assignment Artwork (Completed)

The Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection(s) must be handed in as a PDF document (containing all relevant images) and written reflection component.

Writing

A few paragraphs of writing will be required for each Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection assignment. The written component of each Artwork and Self Reflection assignment will be based on written communication skills and depth of critical self-inquiry into course work. Each written component will make up 2% (6% in total) of your “Critical Participation in Self-Reflection, Critique and Discussion” grade. An individual assignment outline will be given for each Artwork and Self Reflection assignment, providing guiding questions and criteria for the written portion.

Also, a short written statement (two paragraphs) will be a component of your “Prescription Assignment”. Both written components will be evaluated as a part of your final based on the criteria outlined in the assignment and with the use of the course rubric.

A passing grade on each Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection is necessary to pass this course.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Late Assignment Policy

Each assignment is due on the date indicated by the instructor. In-class assignments will be due by the end of class or otherwise indicated by your instructor. Homework assignments will be due on the date indicated on the assignment outline (D2L.) Every assignment will be critiqued and discussed in class. Failure to submit artworks or on time for critique will result in a part letter grade reduction (example: B+ to a B) for the Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection grade for which the assignment falls under. Submitting Artwork Portfolios late will receive an equivalent penalty. If, due to illness or mitigating circumstances, the student is unable to submit the assignment on time for critique, the student must email the instructor and submit the assignment the following class.

Only complete Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection Assignments will be evaluated for marks. Artwork Portfolios and Self Reflections missing one or more assignments will receive an automatic “F”. A failing grade for any Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection Assignment will result in a failure of the course. It is up to the student to ensure that Artwork Portfolios are complete. If due to serious illness or extenuating circumstances, the student is unable to submit a complete portfolio, they are advised to contact their instructor immediately and may be advised to apply for a formal accommodation upon approval from a physician or recognized health professional.

Additional Information

Important Note about Absences and Arriving Late to Class:

Arriving late or being absent from class affects a student's ability to experience course activities and will therefore affect their ability to meet course expectations. Failure to meet such expectations due to being late or absent will be negatively reflected in work produced for the course in addition to the Classroom Participation and Professionalism and Critical Participation grades. Students are expected to attend all classes. Students are responsible for all material and assignments covered in class, even if they are absent. Students can obtain assignments they have missed due to absence by first consulting D2L, speaking with a classmate or by emailing their instructor with short questions or to book an in-person appointment. Missed coursework will not be taught over email.

Minimum Time Expectation for Homework Assignments:

At minimum, students should expect to spend at least 5 hours of intensive work on assignments (homework) outside of course hours. Please note that this is a minimum benchmark expectation and students may need to spend increased time outside of class in order to pass or be successful in this course.

Materials for Every Class

If possible, it is suggested that you obtain a locker in the Dept. of Art (see the "Lockers" section below).

All supplies can be purchased at the U of C Bookstore, ACAD Bookstore or another art supply store (best prices are at the U of C or ACAD Bookstores). A toolbox or old backpack is handy for transportation of these materials as long as it is not too heavy and can fit in your locker.

-Sketchbook 11 x 14 inches or larger (*this course will not have many sketchbook assignments so you are welcome to use a partially used sketchbook or one from another course).

-assorted graphite pencils 2B, 4B, 6B

-small pencil sharpener

-2 black fine point sharpie pens

-1 rubber eraser

-kneadable gum eraser

-1 box of black vine charcoal

-6 sticks or a box of black soft compressed charcoal (you can always split a box with another student)

-set of white, black and sepia conte

-traditional Chinese ink brush, size 6 (or approximately that size)

-inexpensive large flat paint brush (approx. 2 inches)

-1 bottle "India" ink

-1 large cardboard portfolio case (Pro Art, "Art Folio" 24 x 36 inches)

-Masonite board – *available at the U of C Bookstore. You do not need to bring this to class every week unless specified otherwise.

*The cardboard portfolio is preferable because it is larger than the standard size black nylon/leather portfolios. It is also very affordable. You can keep it closed with bulldog clips and either cut out holes for handles with a box cutter or glue/tape cardboard handles. You can also attach a rope to create a shoulder strap.

Course Activities

Class activities will include instructor and student led presentations, guided activities, discussions, critiques and independent studio work. No field trips are currently planned, however, if an opportunity for a field trip emerges that compliments the learning objectives of the course and is during class hours, students will be notified in due time to allow for questions and organization of local and accessible travel (within Calgary).

Note: students will be responsible for their own transportation and for any associated costs.

Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a dirty process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your class mates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy.

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

Cell phones and computers should be kept out of class during course activities including: instructor and student presentations (unless instructed otherwise), demonstrations, classroom activities led by the instructor, figure drawing sessions, discussions and all other organized activities unless a formal accommodation has been made through the U of C accessibility Centre.

If you need to use your smartphone for translation purposes, please consult your instructor first. Students should consider using their smartphones promptly to photo document all artwork made in class for their portfolios. Students are welcome to use their technologies for research purposes or to quietly listen to music during scheduled independent in-class work time and scheduled research time. Not adhering to these expectations effects a student's ability to participate in course content and will therefore be reflected in a student's Classroom Community and Professionalism grade.

Academic Accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (S.A.S.); S.A.S. will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support> or <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.

Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
