Assignment 2 – Beaded/Quilled Carrying Case	40%	April 12, 2017
Assignment 3 - Small Quill Work	10%	April 12, 2017

Classroom Community & Professionalism:

The Classroom Community & Professionalism portion of your grade will be based upon attendance and performance in class, including active participation in studio work, studio procedures, class discussions, critiques and class exhibition.

Punctuality is expected; absences, lateness and early departure will result in a loss of marks.

Critiques

Attendance and full participation during group critiques is required and necessary to develop self-critical awareness of the formal and conceptual weaknesses and strengths of your work as well as your classmates.

Critiques take a level of open mindedness, courage, maturity and patience to be most effective. They are as important as the exercises and assignments themselves in your development as an artist. The professional, critical analysis from your instructor is crucial to your growth and development. It is very important to develop communication skills and attitudes necessary for your fullest benefit and participation during critiques. Do not confuse “constructive critical feedback” from your instructor or classmates as “negative feedback”. As students of art, you must demand an atmosphere of “critical” support and “respect” for your goals of “excellence”.

To pass the course all assignments must be completed or a grade of F will be assigned.

Students do not have to achieve a passing grade on any particular component of this course in order to pass; however, students are required to complete and hand in all assignments or a grade of F will be assigned.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Late Assignment Policy

All assignments must be handed in on time. Late assignments will be penalized by 5% per day, including weekends. Extensions will be given only in extreme circumstances and must be accompanied by supporting documentation but this must be both approved in advance by the instructor, and documented in writing.

Additional Information

Assignments, topical articles, essays and books may be recommended or assigned to individual students.

Course Activities

No field trips are currently planned, however, if an opportunity for a field trip emerges that compliments the learning objectives of the course and is during class hours, students will be notified in due time to allow for questions and organization of local and accessible travel (within Calgary). Note: students will be responsible for their own transportation and for any associated costs.

Students will be provided class time to pursue projects, which will allow for direct feedback. Students should expect, additionally, a minimum of eight to ten hours per week for out-of-class project completion, research and other course-related activities.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.
