Course Description

Individual study: In consultation with the instructor, the student will select a research topic in art history or art criticism.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

Restricted to MFA or PhD students enrolled in the Art Department or consent of Department.

Objectives of the Course

601 Directed Study is intended to guide and assist senior students in their chosen areas of research. Overall, this course will develop and refine general writing and research skills needed at the graduate level. Specifically, in individual tutorials, you will work closely with your instructor to focus and present your own ideas in an academic context.

Textbooks and Readings

Recommended Readings in Topic Area

Assignments and Evaluation

Wed, January 30 th :	Research proposal with Annotated bibliography: 5pp.	20%
Wed. February 27 th :	First Draft of Term Paper: 15 pp.....	30%

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
