Course delivery format will be hybrid (with both synchronous and asynchronous components).

Technology Requirements for Students Taking Online, Remote and Blended Courses
Please review the information regarding technological requirements for online courses here https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/technology-requirements-for-students/

Instructor: Dr. Elizabeth Cavaliere
E-Mail: elizabeth.cavaliere@ucalgary.ca
Office Hours: by Zoom appointment

Course Description
A critical analysis of the forms, objects, and practices that compose the art canon of northern North America. Organized thematically, this course covers the period of history ranging from European contact to the present day.

Antirequisite
Credit for Art History 305 and either 301 or 303 will not be allowed.

Objectives of the Course
This course examines the history of art produced in Canada, from early European settlement to the present. Diverse visual traditions and their intersections will be studied, as will the changing roles of art in Canadian society. Delving into key texts on the history of Canadian art, this course will work to shape an understanding of how Canadian art has been received, perceived, and disseminated by social, political, and institutional forces. In addition to becoming familiar with the canonical artworks, we will be exploring objects and images that sit outside of the traditional fine art mediums of painting and sculpture to examine artefact, craft, photography, video, design, and architecture. Likewise, readings for the course often pair canonical/historical writings in Canadian art history with the writings of artists and critics who challenge and extend Canadian art historical narratives with discussions of identity, gender, race, and class. In addition to readings, lectures, group discussion, and assignments, a key component of this course will be virtually visiting institutions and assessing, in person, how those institutions shape our understandings of Canadian art history. Students will come away from this course with a critical historiographical perspective on the development of Canadian art and Canadian art history.

Course Structure
Each Weekly Module will be composed of:

- Readings
- An asynchronous recorded lecture
- Links to related videos and content for screening
- A Discussion Board weekly proposition
A synchronous ZOOM class discussion period

Dr. Cavaliere’s Pandemic Policy

We continue to be in a pandemic and as such need to be flexible and understanding. Access to stable internet connection is not always possible, and we are all new to teaching and learning in the online environment, so let us all be patient and accommodating of dropped and late connections. I will be posting recorded lectures with captioning to ensure access to content is always available at your convenience. In synchronous discussions having your video on or off is OK, though I encourage you to do your best to be present and focused and to keep your microphone muted when others are speaking. Our personal health, our obligations to ourselves and as caregivers, are central at this time so please don't hesitate to reach out for accommodations.

Textbooks and Readings

There is no course textbook. Weekly readings as scheduled below are available through the course’s D2L page.

Assignments and Evaluation

Full assignment descriptions and rubrics found on the course D2L page. All assignments are to be submitted electronically on the course D2L page – no hardcopies will be collected or accepted.

Reflective Synthesis 30 marks (3 at 10 marks each)
Choose any 3 weekly modules between Weekly Modules 2 and 11 of the course
300-500-words
DUE AT ANY TIME BEFORE DECEMBER 7, THOUGH EACH MUST BE SUBMITTED AT LEAST ONE WEEK APART

Virtual Exhibition Review 20 marks
800-1000-words
DUE NOVEMBER 16

Object Evaluation
Proposal and citations 10 marks
DUE OCTOBER 5
300-word proposal + 3 citations of scholarly sources

Object Evaluation and Analysis 30 marks
DUE DECEMBER 7
1000-1500-words

Participation 10 marks
You will provide a self-assessment that includes a 200-word justification that considers your submission of assignments by their due dates, participation in synchronous class discussions and the discussion board.
DUE NOVEMBER 30

There is not one particular component that students are required to pass in order to pass the course as a whole.

If you miss submitting a component it is your responsibility to be in touch with the course instructor to reach an accommodation for submission, otherwise the component will receive a grade of zero.
Writing
The format, organization, and style of writing will be assessed as part of all written assignments.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam
There is no registrar-scheduled final exam as part of this course.

Late Assignment Policy
1 mark per day from the assignment’s course weight will be deducted for late. (For example, if an assignment is worth 20 marks of your overall course grade, two days late will automatically bring it down to 18/20 marks.) As a result of the pandemic, I am happy to provide accommodation on any grounds. However, I am obligated to submit final grades to the registrar in a timely manner and therefore require that all assignments be submitted no later than December 14. Assignments that have not been submitted after this date will receive a grade of zero.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Academic Accommodations
The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.
Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the course instructor.

Academic Standing

Deferral of Exams/Term work
It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examination(s) for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with Enrolment Services if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines.

For more information about deferring a final exam go to https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams

Writing/Plagiarism
Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support or http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Instructor Intellectual Property and Copyright Legislation
Course materials created by the instructor (including course outlines, presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the same course section and term may be allowed under fair dealing. Check with the instructor if you have any questions about sharing materials with classmates.

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorized sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks, etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.
