Course Description

Foundation course in three-dimensional art making. Creative exploration may include media such as plaster, clay, wood, and found objects. Technical approaches may include mold-making, casting, additive and subtractive processes. Form, mass, volume and materials will be addressed in the context of research, problem solving, visual fluency and conceptual development.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites
None

Objectives of the Course

Upon successful completion of the course students will demonstrate understanding and competency in the areas of:
1. the formal elements and principles of three-dimensional design.
2. the vocabulary of three-dimensional design and visual expression.
3. the application of diverse studio media for three-dimensional design.
4. meaning in visual imagery encompassing form, style, content and evolving metaphor.
5. creative practice and creative development.
6. collaborative creative practice in the development of original work.

Textbooks and Readings

- Supplemental readings and resources posted in D2L throughout the course.

Assignments and Evaluation

The following is a list of the required Learning Tasks (listed in chronological order) that constitute the assignments for this course along with Learning Task due dates and assignment weighting:
Learning Task #1 - Collaborative, Large-Scale 3 Dimensional Form – A large group, collaborative, large scale exploration requiring a group collaborative plan and a sculptural plan. Media – cardboard, newspaper, string, duct tape.
25% - due date – September 23rd, 2019

Learning Task #2 - Installation – Creating a Metaphorical 3 – Dimensional Environment – Small group exploration and development of an installation (metaphorical, 3 – dimensional environment) using diverse media.
25% - due date – October 16th, 2019

*Learning Tasks #3 and #4 – Face Off – Creating an Alter Ego Character are combined to create a face and anatomical components of an original 3–dimensional alter ego character.

Learning Task #3 - Faceoff, Part 1 - Creating An Alter Ego Character – Metaphorical Mask – Casting, Mould Making and Forming through additive sculpture to create the face of an original alter ego character. Media – Plaster bandage, paper/cardboard, found media, acrylic paint.
25% - due date – November 25th, 2019

Learning Task #4 - Faceoff, Part 2 – Creating an Alter Ego Character - The Figurative Anatomy – Subtractive anatomical sculpture in the round in Styrofoam or alternative media of an anatomical component of an original alter ego character. Media – Styrofoam, found media, acrylic paint.
25% - due date – December 4th, 2019

* Attendance and participation are worth 10% of each assignment.

Grades will be based on the following:

1. Evidence of a gained knowledge of three-dimensional design fundamentals as shown in the quality of work submitted.
2. Degree of skill and craftsmanship that is employed.
3. Degree of originality and willingness to explore new ideas.
4. Level of commitment to the course, attendance, and deadlines. Full and respectful participation in collaborative group work is essential. Full class attendance and full demonstration during class time of three-dimensional design acumen is expected of all class participants.
5. Written co-formative assessments where each student is required to engage in substantial written reflection on components of each assignment based on metacognitive rubrics established for each assignment.

Completion of each assignment and a passing grade is required for each course learning task to receive a passing grade for the course.

Important

1. All assignments must be completed in order to pass the course. (See “Late Assignment Policy” below).
2. A passing grading for each posted assignment is necessary to pass the course.
3. 100% attendance is essential for success in this class. Please notify the instructor as early as possible if you are unable to attend a specific class to ensure that no course content is missed.
4. All assignments are posted in D2L. It is the student’s responsibility to be completely aware of course assignments and pertinent course documents through D2L as the class is largely paperless.
5. Please make an arrangement with the instructor to complete assignments missed for circumstances beyond your control such as illness or family emergencies.
Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student’s responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor’s mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy
Late assignments are subject to a grade reduction of one increment (e.g., A to A-, C+ to C) for every day late after the posted due date up to 3 days unless prior formal arrangement has been made with the instructor. Failure to submit an assignment after 3 days of the posted due date will result in a grade of “F” for that assignment.

Additional Information

Supplies:

For Learning Task #1, each student is to bring the following supplies to the first day of classes:

- 5 corrugated cardboard boxes folded flat
- 3 newspapers
- a roll of twine or heavy string
- a boxcutter knife
- a roll of duct tape and masking tape

Supplies lists for the remaining learning tasks will be posted a week prior to the commencement of each learning task. Total supply costs for the course are expected to be approximately $100.00 to $135.00 depending on material options each student chooses for each learning task.

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

N.A.
Models

In this class students may be expected to draw from nude models. A student electing not to do so must notify the instructors IN WRITING of his/her concerns.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.
Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.

Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a dirty process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your classmates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy.

Academic Accommodations

The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the course instructor.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support or http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Instructor Intellectual Property and Copyright Legislation

Course materials created by the instructor (including course outlines, presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the same course section and term may be allowed under fair dealing. Check with the instructor if you have any questions about sharing materials with classmates.

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorized sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks, etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Lockers
The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union’s used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement at https://www.su.ucalgary.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/08/locker_rental_agreement_2010.pdf

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you’re in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation. Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.
