Course Description

Three-dimensional activities and the structural, organizational, perceptual, social and psychological aspects of art.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

None

Objectives of the Course

Upon satisfactory completion of the course the student will have an understanding of:

- a. Art related terms, ideas and concepts as they relate to three dimensional form.
- b. Fundamental art elements and their related functions in art as they relate to three dimensional form.

Textbooks and Readings

There is no assigned textbook. Readings will be assigned throughout the term based on handouts, websites, etc.

Assignments and Evaluation

Activities include lectures by the instructor, demonstrations, critiques, slide presentations and studio work by the student.

Marks will be based on term work and class participation as follows:

- a. Evidence of gained knowledge of design fundamentals as shown in the quality of work submitted.

- b. Degree of skill and craftsmanship that is employed.
- c. Degree of originality and willingness to explore new ideas.
- d. Level of commitment to the course, attendance and deadlines.
- e. Oral presentation in class.

There will be 8 projects all weighed equally to a total of 80%. Deadline dates will be assigned for each project and a grade will be assessed on the deadline date

20% of the final grade will be for participation in critiques, slide lectures, gallery visits as well as an oral presentation. The oral presentation will be on art related issues and will be assigned to each student during the first week of class (including dates for presentation).

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – No

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered by the Students' Union in 251 MacEwan Student Centre. There are various shapes and sizes of lockers for rent. Please write down the barcode numbers (top left of each locker) for the locker shape that you require and bring this list with you to the SU office between 8:30a.m. and 4:30p.m., Monday-Friday. Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

For more information go to <http://www.su.ucalgary.ca/>

Models

In this class students are expected to draw from nude models. A student electing not to do so must notify the instructors IN WRITING of his/her concerns.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

All unclaimed work will be disposed of two weeks after the end of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
