Course Description
Introductory course in observational and representational drawing. Creative exploration includes mark-making, hand-eye co-ordination, proportions, perspective, line, texture, figure-ground relationships and pictorial composition. Approaches may include pencil, conté, charcoal, pastel, pen and ink. These will be addressed in the context of research, problem-solving, visual fluency and conceptual development.

Prerequisites and/or Co-requisites
N/A

Objectives of the Course
1. The student will have been introduced to and will have demonstrated a general understanding of various foundational concepts relevant to drawing as a historic and contemporary artistic practice which may include: line, shape, value, form, scale, composition, pictorial space, perspective, still life, figure drawing etc.

2. The student will have been exposed to the work and processes of various artists relevant to drawing from a historic and contemporary perspective

3. The student will have experimented and will have demonstrated competency with a range of media which may include: charcoal, graphite, conté, pen etc.

4. The student will have experimented and demonstrated competency with a range of traditional and non-traditional techniques relevant to drawing as a historic and contemporary practice which may include: observational drawing techniques, contour line, cross-hatching, shading, blind drawing, creating pictorial space, one-point and two-point empirical perspective

5. The student will have experimented and demonstrated competency in the use of various methodologies for drawing from a historic and contemporary perspective. Such methodologies may include drawing from: observation, still life, live model, imagination, maquette, photography etc.
6 The student will have been exposed to and will have demonstrated a basic vocabulary for understanding and communicating concepts and methodologies relevant to drawing through course activities, self-reflection activities, peer-reflection activities, small group and large group discussion and critiques.

7 The student will have demonstrated critical skills by articulating connections and possible interpretations of and between various concepts, techniques and methods in relationship to artistic objectives during class discussions, critiques and course activities.

8 The student will have demonstrated critical self-reflection skills by conducting a thorough analysis of past course work and processes in order to present a thoughtful identification of strengths in drawing and areas of improvement. The student will identify specific goals for future creative and critical work in self-reflection assignments.

9 Student will have demonstrated adherence to following course expectations:

- You are expected to help and be involved in creating an atmosphere of safety, mutual participation, respect, criticality, discovery and diligent work.
- You are expected to challenge yourself, your habits and your presumptions about art and art practice.
- You are expected to work independently and with other students. You will be given the opportunity to do both in this class.
- You are expected to take creative risks and be willing to engage the challenges implicit in various course assignments and activities.
- You are expected to experiment with materials, ideas, approaches, themes and modes of presentation in your artwork produced in this class.

Course Delivery

Please note that access to internet for the duration of this course is absolutely required

This course will be taught using a hybrid online delivery. Your attendance is MANDATORY for all mandatory zoom meetings over the course of the term (two times during semester). Other optional zoom meetings are scheduled throughout the course if students wish to ask questions and obtain feedback from their instructor (students are required to sign up for optional zoom meetings via D2L the day before). Students are highly encouraged to attend at-least ONE optional zoom meeting throughout the semester, even just to observe the discussion and comments being made to other students. Please note, that occasionally, students may be required to attend optional zoom meetings if their instructor wishes to discuss an element of their progress with them (selected students will receive an email the day before). Independent lab periods are dedicated to student’s own independent work on class assignments. Students are encouraged to attend optional zoom periods and weekly office hours if they have any questions or require advice concerning their work (see sign up instructions below).

Course lectures will be presented to students via pre-recorded video lectures (available on D2L). Students are to complete course assignments on their own time while meeting assignment deadlines. Individual assignments will be due (D2L) in an ongoing and timely manner throughout the course to ensure continuity and progressive skill development. D2L will be a primary source for course materials and information. Scheduled Zoom meetings (mandatory and optional meetings) will be a primary method of communication. However, you are encouraged to check your UCalgary email daily throughout the semester as your instructor will email important reminders and updates as well. Students may email their professor if required.

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection (Evaluation of Course Assignments):

All assignments will be re-reviewed and evaluated by your instructor upon receiving your Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection Assignment. You will submit a portfolio twice throughout the course. The assignment portfolio will be inclusive of all coursework and will be evaluated holistically, in reference to course objectives and assignment criteria, utilizing the course rubric and University of Calgary grading scale.

It is very important that you document (with a smartphone or digital camera) every assignment you create for the course.

Each assignment within the portfolio will be given equal consideration in its capacity to inform a broad picture of your work and progress in the course. Criteria for each individual assignment highlighting objectives will accompany each assignment. Criteria for all assignments will be provided on D2L by the date the assignment is given.

Portfolio evaluation in the form of a letter grade and qualitative feedback will be provided to you approximately 1-2 weeks after the portfolio is due. Upon receiving a grade and feedback on your complete portfolio, if you feel you would like to re-do, adjust or change an (already fully completed) assignment(s), you may do so as long as you re-submit the assignment prior to the next portfolio due date. You must obtain initial permission from your instructor (via email) if you wish to re-do or adjust an assignment for resubmission. Upon approval, all re-done or adjusted assignments must be handed in by Sunday April 18.

* Without modifying the breadth or scope of the course in accordance with the above learning objectives, any changes made to the list (below) of required assignments for each portfolio will be given prior to the portfolio due date.

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection (Midterm) will include:

1) Drawing from Still Life
2) Tangle Drawing Prep
3) Tangle Drawing Sketch and Plan
4) Tangle Drawing
5) Mark-Making Self Portrait

Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection (Final) will include:

1) Self-Portrait from a Mirror (Light and Shadow)
2) Perspective Exercise 1
3) Perspective Exercise 2
4) Perspective Exercise 3
5) Perspective Exercise 4
Writing

Peer comments, suggestions and response assignments, and your Midterm and Final portfolios will require standard written English language skills expected at the University level. Evaluation of the content of these assignments will be reflected in your “Critical Interpretation & Course Citizenship” Grade.

*A passing grade on no particular component of this course is essential to pass the course as a whole.

If a student misses a required component, they must contact their instructor immediately.

Registrar Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Late Assignment Policy
Each assignment is due on the date indicated in this outline. Failure to submit an individual drawing assignment by the assigned due date will result in a full letter grade reduction (example: B+ to a B) for the Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection grade for which the assignment falls under. Submitting Artwork Portfolios late will receive an equivalent penalty. If, due to illness or mitigating circumstances, the student is unable to submit the assignment by the deadline, the student must email the instructor and submit the assignment as possible.

Students are highly encouraged to contact their professor via email at any time throughout the course if they have any questions or concerns.

Only complete Artwork Portfolio and Self Reflection Assignments will be evaluated for marks. Artwork Portfolios and Self Reflections missing one or more assignments will receive an automatic “F”. It is up to the student to ensure that Artwork Portfolios are complete. If, due to serious illness or extenuating circumstances, the student is unable to submit a complete portfolio, they are advised to contact their instructor immediately and may be advised to apply for a formal accommodation upon approval from a physician or recognized health professional.

Writing and Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.
