Art 241

Objectives of the Course

Continuation of Art 241 with emphasis on the use of multiple media and the development of personal artistic expression. The course is designed to strengthen the perceptual and recording skills acquired in Art 241. Introduction of various drawing materials and colour throughout the term will be used to explore both still-life and the human figure with an emphasis on developing a personal interpretation of the subject matter.

Assignments and Evaluation

There is no final examination in this course. Marks are based on term work; you will be given a mid-term and end of term evaluation which will be weighted 50% each. The student is expected to complete all in-class assignments as well as take-home assignments within the prescribed time and to the best of their ability.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment. Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Materials and Supplies

Estimated cost is $160.00. See hand-out for detailed list.

Supplementary Fee

Attendance

The student is expected to attend ALL classes. The student is totally responsible for making him/herself aware of all assignments, procedures and due dates announced in class. Absences do not excuse the student from this responsibility.

The student will be expected to be in class with the appropriate materials, ready to draw at the prescribed starting time. In addition, the student will be expected to attend and actively participate in all critique sessions as scheduled for class time.

Late Assignment Policy

Failure to complete work by the due date will result in a failing grade (F). In case of absence due to illness or emergency, extensions may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Normally, extensions beyond two days after the student returns to class will not be allowed.

Course Safety Activities

Students are required to attend all safety discussions, demonstrations, etc., that are scheduled for their classes, and if any are missed they must be made up in full at the earliest possible moment. Also, in the absence from the classroom of the instructor(s), students shall make reasonable efforts to continue working on projects, provided that their work is demonstratively non-hazardous. If there is any doubt as to the safety of the work to be undertaken while the instructor is absent, students shall consult with the Head Technician or his representative before continuing work.

Studio Procedures

The creation of art can be a dirty process and a studio is only workable if everyone cooperates in keeping it clean. Out of respect and consideration for your class mates and other users of the space, it is expected that everyone will participate in keeping the studio clean and tidy.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense.

Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
