Course Description

Topics in art may include art appreciation, art and everyday life, and themes in art history.

In exploring public art this course provides students with a historical grounding followed by a concentration on public art created since late modernism. Case studies cover a range of considerations in public art including monuments, patronage/funding, street art, festivals, counter-monuments, activist art and craftivism, land art, and performance. The course includes participatory and experiential learning such as fieldtrips and student presentations.

May be repeated for credit (if taking a different topic).

Objectives of the Course

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have:

- 1 been introduced to significant examples of public art associated with current & historical practices
- 2 gained an understanding of ascribing value & criticality in the making and appreciation of public art
- 3 gained an understanding of the role(s) of “an” art object, subject, concept, content, form and process
- 4 acquired a context and understanding for commissioning and funding mechanisms
- 5 developed skills in critical thinking, research, & analysis of public art in oral & written form
- 6 an expanded art vocabulary particularly pertaining to public art and related processes.

7 developed practical skills in public presentation and the use of supporting technologies

Textbooks and Readings

Select readings will be available either online or in the print reserve section of the TFDL (ground floor behind service desk).

Assignments and Evaluation

Participation

10%

Participation grade is based on engaging with course elements including readings, discussion groups and participating in field trips and movie screenings. Students will be required to provide 10 written answers to specific questions relating to course activities. Questions will be set each week by instructor, or students may instead be required to structure a commentary or propose their own question on a particular element.

Grade accumulates throughout the course based on ten questions/answers.

In class art vocabulary test (May 17)

05%

This short test is based on key art terms as covered in the first three weeks of class. Content is based on a combination of material covered in class readings, and instructor presentations.

In class test on hybridity and street art (May 24)

05%

This short test is based on key art terms relating to hybrid practices seen through the lens of street art. Content is based on a combination of instructor presentations, readings, and a movie screening.

Letter to the Editor (Issue May 24; due June 7)

10%

For this assignment you will identify an editorial source (e.g., newspaper, magazine, political body, interest group) and a subject of choice relating to public art that is of relevance to the course. You will research the subject and write a letter that creates a persuasive argument based on your research. You need not follow any citation protocol, but must reference some evidence.

Mid-term exam (June 9)

Content is based on a combination of material covered in class readings, instructor presentations, fieldwork and homework, during the first part of the course, including key vocabulary, case studies and readings.

Individual presentation on chosen public artwork (June 21-28) 20%

Each student will make a seminar presentation on a public artwork of choice. This will follow the pecha kucha format: 20 slides timed for 20 seconds each, with a spoken commentary based on a script, totaling a 6m 40s presentation. A roster for these presentations will be compiled after midterm. Grade will be given upon course completion.

Research paper (Due last class, June 30)

30%

1,000 – 1,500 word essay on a chosen public artwork, relating to course content. Grade will be given upon course completion.

Writing

The student seminar presentations, exam, and essay will all require writing. Grading will be based primarily on the content of answers. Readability, comprehension, spelling and syntax will form part of the grade, particularly in the essay.

To pass the course students must complete the seminar presentations, mid-term exam, and essay, and pass the seminar presentation and essay assignments.

Students with learning difficulties or adaptive software needs should consult the instructor and/or ensure they have an Academic Accommodation Agreement. Students are also encouraged to avail themselves of the writing support services of the U of C TFDL.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Late Assignment Policy

- All assignments must be handed in on time. Extensions may be granted in extenuating circumstances, e.g., documented illness, family emergency, or similar, but this must be both approved in advance by the instructor, and documented in writing.
- Late assignments (without an extension) incur penalties of one grade per day, excluding weekends and holidays, for a maximum of two weeks.
- After ten working days, assignments will not be accepted and a failing grade may be assigned for the course.

Additional Information

Any work submitted must have your name and student number clearly printed. Pages should be numbered and be held with a paper clip or staples: no plastic covers or folders please!

Good luck with your studies and enjoy the class. Remember I'm available by office hours and appointment and am here to help you succeed to the best of your potential and input.

Course Activities

When taking part in field trips please show respect and gratitude to members of the public and those persons involved in the activities.

Note: students will be responsible for their own transportation and for any associated fees.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous and friendly manner, offering encouragement and respect to peers during class activities. Class discussions, particularly relating to student presentations, require thoughtful engagement.

With the course running on a compressed spring schedule, regular attendance, participation and completion of homework are required to ensure optimum success.

All assignments must be completed on time (see Late Assignment Policy).

Grading Method/Grading Scale:

Percentag	Grad	G.P.V	Grade Definition
96-100	A+	4.0	Outstanding

85-89	A-	3.7
80-84	B+	3.3
75-79	B	3.0	Good – clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally
70-74	B-	2.7
65-69	C+	2.3
60-64	C	2.0	Satisfactory – basic understanding of the subject matter.
55-59	C-	1.7
53-54	D+	1.3
50-52	D	1.0	Minimal pass – marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
0-49	F	0	Fail – unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.

Studio Procedures

Not applicable

Internet and Electronic Communication Device Information

Cell phones and pagers must be turned off and stored out of sight, except if a student or faculty member has compelling circumstances that warrant active cell phone use during class hours. These circumstances must be identified and approved by both faculty and students at the beginning of the semester or class.

Laptops may be used in class for note taking only. Surfing the web is restricted to project work as approved by the instructor. Wireless connections should be disabled at all other times.

Email: class time and office hours are the primary contact periods for instruction and questions. Email may be used for communicating unexpected absences, arranging appointments or general questions. The instructor will endeavor to answer emails within a reasonable period of time (1-3 days) but students should not rely on immediate responses. Course instruction does not occur via email.

Academic Accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (S.A.S.); S.A.S. will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf

Deferral of Exams/Term work

It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examination(s) for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with Enrolment Services if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support> or <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student's Union's used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time. All of the details on renting a locker and your responsibilities can be found on the Locker Rental Agreement at https://www.su.ucalgary.ca/wp-content/uploads/2014/08/locker_rental_agreement_2010.pdf

Lockers for all sessions can be rented through my.ucalgary.ca. Once you're in the Student Centre, click on Other Academic Services and choose Locker Reservation.

Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

For more information go to <http://www.su.ucalgary.ca/>

Models

There will be no working from models in this class.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

Note - All unclaimed work will be disposed of.

Note - Studio spaces, bulletin boards and display areas need to be cleared 2 weeks after the last day of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.

For more information go to <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-5.html> or <https://www.ucalgary.ca/research/researchers/ethics-compliance/chreb>
