Course Description

Continuation of Art 481.

Prerequisites

Art 481.

Objectives of the Course

The course will provide the students with the opportunity to examine in depth their concepts and work patterns by concentrating upon one or more methodologies within the discipline of sculpture.

Textbooks and Readings

There is no assigned textbook. Readings will be assigned throughout the term based on handouts, websites, etc.

Assignments and Evaluation

The student will be expected to engage in four major projects during the semester. One of the projects will be an installation in the sculpture gallery. Students will be required to make an oral presentation in class.

It is expected that 2 projects will be completed for midterm assessment by the first scheduled class after Reading Week, Feb 26. The remaining projects will be assessed on the last scheduled day of class, April 16. Each project will be weighted equally to a total of 80%.

20% of the final grade will reflect studio work habits, in-class involvement and contributions to tutorials and critiques as well oral presentations and gallery visits.

At specified times during the semester critiques, discussions, slide presentations, visits to galleries and visits by artists will be arranged. At the end of the semester a studio exhibition will be required.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment. Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – No

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered by the Students' Union in 251 MacEwan Student Centre. There are various shapes and sizes of lockers for rent. Please write down the barcode numbers (top left of each locker) for the locker shape that you require and bring this list with you to the SU office between 8:30a.m. and 4:30p.m., Monday-Friday. Lockers must be vacated by the end of term.

Models

In this class students are expected to draw from nude models. A student electing not to do so must notify the instructors IN WRITING of his/her concerns.

Portfolios and Assignments

The Department of Art will not assume responsibility for lost or stolen portfolios or course work given to instructors for grading, or for work posted on bulletin boards in the art building.

All unclaimed work will be disposed of two weeks after the end of classes.

Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (i.e., surveys, interviews or observation) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve of your research plans and supervise your research.
