Course Description

Continuation of Art 481.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites

Art 481

Objectives of the Course

The course will provide students with the opportunity to examine in depth their concepts and work patterns by concentrating upon one or more methodologies within the discipline of sculpture. Media to be investigated can range from clay, plaster, wood, fiberboard, concrete, electronic systems, earth, water, air, metals to any combination of the above. Techniques may involve welding, mold making, modeling, casting, carving, construction, etc.

Textbooks and Readings

There are no assigned textbooks. Readings will be assigned throughout the term based on handouts, websites, etc.

Assignments and Evaluation

The student will be expected to engage in four major projects during the semester. One of the projects will be an installation in the sculpture gallery. Students will be required to make an oral presentation in class. It is expected that 2 projects will be completed for midterm assessment by the first scheduled class after Reading Week. The remaining projects will be assessed on the last scheduled day of class. Each project will be weighed equally to total 80%.

20% of the final grade will reflect studio work habits, in-class involvement and contributions to tutorials and critiques as well as oral presentations and gallery visits.

At specified times during the semester critiques, discussions, slide presentations, visits to galleries (students will be responsible for their own transportation and entrance/exhibit fees) and visits by artists will be arranged. At the end of the semester a studio exhibition will be required.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment. Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Materials will be assigned as required.

Writing/Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or Writing Support Services (at the Student Success Centre) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
