Course Description
Independent studio research and production supported by a research paper for BFA Honours Visual Studies students, culminating in a Thesis Exhibition.

Prerequisites &/or Co-requisites
Art 461 and admission to the BFA Honours Visual Studies program.

Note: Normally completed concurrently with ART 561 and ART 563.

Objectives of the Course
1. Through guided studio-based production and reflection, the course complements and enhances creative research produced in ART 561 and ART 563, and will help ensure professional presentation and public dissemination of the Thesis Exhibition.

2. Through a sequence of assignments, you will develop written support material (a research based, thesis support paper) directly related to your creative research. The support paper provides a coherent and articulate context that accounts for the production of your studio work and within which it can be viewed. Such material will be necessary for ongoing artistic projects including exhibitions, grant applications and graduate school applications, etc.

Textbooks and Readings
There is no textbook assigned for this course but students are encouraged to be familiar with Andrew Marks, Writing for Visual Thinkers: A Guide for Artists and Designers (available electronically from TFDL).

Directed readings will be assigned by the instructor as needed, or proposed by others in the course.

Assignments and Evaluation
Descriptions of each assignment with detailed expectations will be provided during the course and will be available on D2L.
FALL TERM:
Evaluation of previous support papers 10%  Due September 25
Precedent discussion paper 10%  Due October 30
Artists’ writing presentation 10%  Due November 20
Thesis Project Proposal 20%  Due December 4

WINTER TERM:
Draft of supporting paper 10%  Due March 11, 2020
Final Supporting Paper 20%  Due April 8, 2020 (individual deadlines TBD)
Installation of thesis art 20%  To be determined by Nickle Galleries staff

Note: It is the student’s responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment.

Please hand in your assignments directly to your instructor or submit through D2L or email as appropriate. If this is not possible, you can use the drop box outside of AB 608. Assignments that are put into the drop box will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor’s mailbox.

Writing
Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course.

All components of the course must be completed in order to receive a final passing grade. Passing grades on the Final Supporting Paper and the Installation of thesis art are essential for a student to pass the course as a whole.

Registrar-Scheduled Final Exam – NO

Note: It is the student’s responsibility to keep a copy of or any relevant documentation regarding each submitted assignment.

Late Assignment Policy

Late assignments will be reduced a grade for each day after the deadline.

Additional Information

This course is scheduled as F(2T-4) for a full academic year. This means that your tutorials are scheduled for up to two hours per week in both the Fall and Winter terms. All tutorials will be designed to accommodate group interaction. As such, it is expected that all students will attend all tutorial sessions. The lab hours provide additional, scheduled studio time for the preparation of either creative or support research for your thesis project.

Writing/Plagiarism

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.

For more information go to http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support or http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. Visual art projects submitted for course credit must be produced by the student specifically for this class. Students must not submit projects if credit has or will be provided for it in another class. This includes re-worked assignments from previous or concurrent courses, unless permission is provided in writing by the instructor. Additionally, the student is asked to be mindful of using visual sources from the internet, ensuring that that material is not derived from any on-line or other available source, and that appropriate copyright permission is granted, when required.

Instructor Intellectual Property and Copyright Legislation

Course materials created by the instructor (including course outlines, presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the same course section and term may be allowed under fair dealing. Check with the instructor if you have any questions about sharing materials with classmates.

All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorized sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks, etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

Lockers

The Art Building lockers are administered through the Student’s Union’s used bookstore, Bound and Copied. Lockers are rented on a first come, first served basis. Due to the shortage of lockers, and the high demand, students cannot hold more than one locker at a time.
